From the Crown

Greetings unto the populace c ıe Outlands from Your Crown!!

Our Coronation held, we'd lik › thank all the wondrous people of the Citadel for hosting such a great event. Although our day was usy one, we thank those who took the time to visit with us and your wishes of a long and glorious gn are well met. To all those who acquired the hall, set-up and tore down, cooked the feast, and spent m hours elsewise preparing, we send out 3 cheers. A special thank you to those who fought in our tourn ents. The fighting was great to watch. We congratulate the victors of these tourneys - Count Caesar serve as the Queen's Champion and Lady Marygold Tynker as Protector of the Queen's Heart. We alsc ust thank our retinue and those who have chosen to serve us personally -- without your aid and support ' wouldn't be able to keep up with the Reign as We see it should be.

The early numbers are in and were glad to be a part of the Toys for Tots efforts throughout the Kingdom. From the early rep it looks like we are going to give other Kingdoms a good challenge. Giving a little back to our loca ommunities each year in the form of a gift or two for the children is appreciated more then you ma ealize. We thank all who gave a toy that cheered a child's holiday this season.

Many years ago when the Ord of the White Scarf was elevated to a grant-level award, it was decided correctly for the times to keep mer bearers of the Order at their AoA-level ranking. As times change and reasons for doing one thing or other come and go, it is Our pleasure to grandfather the Order of the White Scarf for all to rank wit her kingdom level grant awards. Please review the updated charter elsewhere. We also felt it was ıe to honor those gentles who take joy in giving a spectacular performance in death. We hav ıus created the Order of the Fallen Snow which may be given by the Crown to those of Our subject ho have shown exemplary skill in the art of portraying an honored warrior's death upon the field.

On the home front - the reinde escue was a great success and we have had a great time bringing a little joy to the Outlands' children b aking them protectors and owners of these rescued reindeer! A few special thank-yous to A'isha, A , Claudia, Kathws, many of the Citadel and the aides from the northern reaches of Our Kingdom. Als anks to Helga and Clan Tynker for making them capes for warmth this winter!

War will soon be upon us and are pleased to see so many Outlanders taking up the cause. It is important to remember that thi ear the fighting fields will be smaller than usual, so flanking will not be a primary option. Because of thi umbers shall be important, so we need everyone who can make it to attend us at Estrella. Call up th who have wandered from our herd and let the great Stag Army rise again to face another challenge. This ll certainly be one of the greatest Estrella Wars of all time, it would be a shame to miss it.

Although We have just begun glorious journey as your Crown, We must take time to look to choosing Our Heirs. The next Crown Tc ıament will be hosted by the Barony of al-Barran at Our request. If you wish to vie for the Crown, We ite you to submit your letter of intent to us in writing by January 31st. We ask that you review Corpo nd Kingdom Law, search your hearts, and reveal to Us your reason for wanting to serve the Outlands Our Heirs. We would like to see a large number of entrants so His Majesty calls upon all Stag's B d's, Thegns, and Knights to test their mettle in the grandest of all Outland's tournaments. In add ı to the requirements set down in Law, We request that all those entrants and their consorts with register ırms display said arms in some fashion at the tournament. For all those who have no arms, We reques ıt you consult with Our heralds and have your name and device in submission before March. We l heraldry plays a signifigant part in the pageantry of events and to serve as Crown you should be playin n active role in this aspect.

Elsewhere you shall find the cl ge in Law where We deleted the requirement that "no consort may be fought for by more than one er ıt". We believe it is the right of each individual Sovereign to decide on a case by case basis if this shoul : allowed.

THE NON MEMBER SURCHARGE (NMS)

From the Board of Directors

At the July 20, 2002 quarterly meeting, after several months of collecting comments from the membership, the Board of Directors instituted a nonmember surcharge of $3 on admission to events. The Board directed the Vice President of Corporate Operations, Society Seneschal, and Society Exchequer, and the appropriate Kingdom officers to establish implementation procedures. After three months of study, the SCA's officers presented the following guidelines for NMS implementation.

How the NMS applies:

(1) The NMS will apply to events which meet the requirements defined in Corpora section II.C., "...Society events for which a full announcement including date, time, and place has been published in advance in the appropriate corporate publication;" and for which a fee or required donation to attend the event is charged.
(2) The NMS will not be collected if there is no fee or required donation to attend the event.
(3) The NMS will not be collected for minors for whom there is a discounted event fee.

Default procedure for NMS implementation:

(1) Each Kingdom will collect the NMS and forward monies in US fund to the Corporate Office on a quarterly basis.
(2) The Kingdom Seneschal and Kingdom Chancellor Of The Exchequer will be responsible for ensuring compliance.
(3) Implementation alternatives may be presented to, and approved by, the Society Seneschal and Treasurer of the SCA, Inc. Final approval of alternatives will be reviewed by the Board.

How the NMS applies (Explained in plain English by THL Cynthia, AEthelmearc Exchequer)

(1) At this time, the NMS applies at all events and is $3.00 per non-member.
(2) If there is no charge at the door, then the NMS does not apply (It is not the intent of the Corporation to collect the NMS for fighter practices, monthly meetings, etc.)
(3) Groups cannot pay the NMS for non-members attending events. (To do so would be using SCA funds to benefit private individuals, which is a violation of policy.)
(4) If there is a discounted fee for children, then there is no NMS for the children who attend paying the discounted fee. If the child is not a member and there is not a discount for children, then the NMS does apply
(5) Events on college campuses - some colleges allow us to hold events on their campuses, but we can't charge anyone with a valid student ID - no NMS for these students.
(6) As always, [members in good standing need to present] proof of membership, i.e. Blue Membership Card, or anything with an address label showing your name and expiration date.

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Unto the great populace of the mighty Kingdom of the Outlands does Master Adam Stedefast, Kingdom Seneschal send festive greetings during these holiday months.

My tidings are festinve indeed. As of the writing of the missive the the Outlands has raised over 6,000 toys through the Outlands Toys for Tots All-Kingdom effort! The final numbers will be available in my next report. Well Done!

Congratulations to Mistress Tatiana Pavlovna and Sir Lavan Longwalker who have accepted the exalted positions of White Stag Principal Herald and Earl Marshal, respectively. Holding a kingdom office is a great joy, but also a great responsibility. Thanks to these good gentles for stepping up to support the Outlands. Thanks go to Master J.Balthazar Tigrero for his work as White Stag, being the voice of the Crown and guiding the Outlands College of Heralds, and to Earl Cathyn Fitzgerald for his work fostering the marshallate of the kingdom as Earl Marshal. Your tasks were not easy and you are appreciated.

As the season for giving comes to a close, it is now the season to wreak havoc. War is on the horizon! Our warriors are legend, our artisans immortal. Our volunteers are the greatest in the world, so let them be seen. In order for the Total War Effort to succeed, every able body who can is needed to support the Outlands at Estrella War and in its preparation for war. Find the need, then fill it.

In Service,
Adam Stedefast

From the Chronicler

Greetings!

I have two things of relatively minor import to discuss here, but I will be brief. First, I must discuss deadlines and how flexible I am or am not. Second, I have to thank the WonderDeputy, without whom you'd never have seen the other issue.

Regarding Deadlines: Please try to get stuff to me by the first of the month before your article is due. I understand now why that is the date they set, and each new thing that arrives afterwards adds a little stress to the production time.

Regarding WonderDeputy: I speak, of course, of Andréva-Delphine. Simply put, without her timely and self-directed assistance, no one would even yet have the December issue. She got the rubber stamp so we could use the bulk mail permit. She picked the issue up from the printer when equipment failure put the completion date past where I had scheduled time off, and I couldn't miss any more work waiting for it. She dealt with the post office regarding the mailing of last issue, including personally stamping three hundred odd first class mailings. If you see her, give her a high five.

Thank you again for all your patience while I get the bugs ironed out. Again and always, double check your information and let me know where I biffed it. I'm happy to fix things, but I can't fix things I don't know about.

Talk to you all soon, I hope
Max

From the Waterbearer

Greetings and warm thoughts to all Outlanders!

It is with joyous heart that I now announce that I have found someone who is worthy in all respects to be the next Kingdom Waterbearer. At this Spring Crown, Lady Gwynnedd Sastra will succeed me as Kingdom Waterbearer.

However, between now and then is WAR! As always, to support our armies in its triumphs, we need waterbearers for heavy fighters, light fighters, and archers on all days of the War. As a change from last year, you only need to be 16 to waterbear at the field (last year it was 18), as the conditions are less strenuous than the Battle Pit.

If each one of us who is able does a single two-hour shift on one day, the work will be light and yet well done. You can sign up at: http://www.wombatinfestation.org/water/estrella.html or simply come to the Water Points on-site. The website will also have other information about waterbearing at Estrella, and I am available to answer questions.

I will once again coordinate water on the heavy fields, and m'lady Lilliana from al-Barran will do the same for the fencers. I am still in need of someone willing to coordinate water for the archers, as I still can't be in two places at the same time. If you have ever been interested in working with the waterbearers, now is the time!

In service,
Alia Marie de Blois
Kingdom Waterbearer

From th Minister of Arts and Sciences

Greetings Outlanders!

The next two months shall be ve busy ones for our A&S communities I am sure! Enclosed within this issue are the judging forms for t Estrella A&S categories this year (vivat to Don Max!). Once again, I want to stress that documentatio will be very important - please contact me if I can give aid in any way to anyone planning on competing.

Next, as many of you may alrea know, this year's Queen's Prize has become a Collegium, Conlegium Regina! We already have a num r of excellent classes planned, including lampworking, glovemaking, enamelling, bardic, dance and a ethora of cookery classes. Please contact me ASAP if you would like to teach or if you have suggestions r classes for which I should find an instructor. As of this writing, the site is not yet firm, but will hopefull e by the time this hits your mailbox.

Lastly, as has been mentioned p viously, I will be doing a special issue of the Outlandish Herald to coincide with the Collegium. I h e a few articles and a cover has been commissioned, but I still need much more if I am to meet my s ted goal of having something from every group! Submission deadline is Feb 1 and I will need the standa permission to publish forms. Text can be sent me via email (if it's not too huge) but please send artwork v regular mail as I have an ancient computer that I don't want to make eat itself. If you have any questions n what would be suitable, please contact me today - I would like this to be an excellent A&S issue!

Looking forward to seeing man f you compete at Estrella - until next month -

Toujours a vos ordres,
Margaret

From the Kingdom Scribe

Warm greetings to all who read ese letters,

If you are an Outlander and rec ed an award this past reign but did not get a scroll, please contact me so that I can arrange for a scroll to made. If someone volunteered to make your scroll, I still need that information. If you need a scro for any award in any Outlands reign and have not yet received one please contact me.

So your device has been registe l and you want/need a final scroll? You have some wonderful choices to make. You can approach a scrib of your choice to commission your final scroll. I am happy to provide contact and other scribal inform on. Commissions are private contracts between you and the scribe. There is no set guideline for compens n. It can be money, barter, or trade. How much will depend on scroll materials and complexity. A cle deadline for the work to be completed should be agreed on to avoid potential misunderstandings. Th hing about commissioned work is that you can participate in the creation by helping with ideas, research d other elements of the scroll. When all of the arrangements have been made I would like the name of t scribe for my records. If you're not sure about all the choices, please contact me and I will be happy discuss them with you.

Last, I would like to reiterate m nvitation to become a scribe, or renew your interest in the scribal arts if you have taken a break. The nee for scribes continues to grow. If you want to try but don't know what supplies you need, please conta me or any working scribe in your area. Many of us have extra supplies that we would be glad to share.

Please help share this informati with interested parties who may not receive or have access to this article.

From the Outgoing Earl Marshal

Unto the fighters of the Outlands ome these greetings from your Earl Marshal.

I bring you tidings of sadness, a of joy. This is my last letter as Earl Marshal. Health issues have been negatively impacting my ability perform the duties of this office. Noting this, I have decided to step aside in favor of a candidate wh vill bring both enthusiasm and administrative skill to this office.

Sir Lavan Longwalker, recently urned from travels to the Midrealm, has graciously offered his service to the Outlands as my successor. T ir Majesties and I have the highest confidence in his ability to serve the needs of the fighting community f the Outlands, and we ask that you welcome him to his new office, and assist him as he labors to assist y 1 in your martial endeavors.

In closing, I would like to offer thanks to my Deputies for their advice and service, to my Group and Authorizing Marshals for their d gence in the performance of their appointed tasks in their areas of responsibility, and most of all, tc ou, the fighters of the Outlands, who, through your conscious adherance to the rules and the Chivalric eth , have made my job both much easier and a joy to do.

From the Incoming Earl Marshal

Unto the populace of this glorious Kingdom come greetings from Sir Lavan Longwalker.

I have just accepted the duties of Earl Marshal and look forward to representing this Kingdom positively through the Earl Marshal Office. As you all are well aware, Estrella is right around the corner and plans need to be set in place for creating a list of volunteer field marshals, manning the inspection areas, combat archery aspects of the war, and other pertinent areas.

It will be my utmost duty to build a strong communication link with each of the local Marshals and Marshals-at-large. The marshals' message board will be the base for a majority of communications. The marshalate group must communicate to ensure a positive and effective standard for the rules and regulations of combat. I need all marshals' assistance in building these strong communication lines.

I will be attending al-Barran Midwinter, Caerthean 12th Night, and Citadel 12th Night. At these events, I would like to conduct a Marshalate Training Class for those individuals interested in learning how to marshal at war and other events. These classes will be focused so that we can teach interested new marshals how to properly inspect armor, conduct a tournament, marshal melee, and marshal war. I would think that we could do a positive class in about an hour's time. We can then do specific training for these people at the specific war practices. Please let me know your thoughts on this.

I have been told that there is currently no person listed to serve as the Estrella Combat Archery Marshal. I would like to hear from those interested so that this can be remedied.

I look forward to the opportunity of meeting all of you in my travels. I will be available at all the above events for any discussions you would like to have. There is plenty of preparation needed for Estrella. I will be creating a list in the near future for those able to assist in various aspects at the war.

Lavan

From the Laurel Representative to the the War Council

Greetings to the artisans of Outlands! As we all prepare for war, I would like to encourage you to prepare an entry for the Estrella Arts and Sciences Competition. The categories are: Functional Accessories (non-jewelry), Heraldic Display (arms only, no badges, and must be passed by the College of Heralds) and Period Garment construction. For more information about these categories, and for LOTS more information about the competition, please go the Estrella War website: www.estrellawar.org, and click on the A&S link. You can get to the Estrella War site from the Outlands webpage as well. The judging sheets that will be used in the competition are printed here. I have available an article on Heraldic Display by Mistress Joella, and an article on Basic Documentation. If you would like a copy of either or both of these please email me at Laurel_Anderson@msn.com or call me at 915-845-8472.

Our artistic endeavors enhance the glory of the Outlands presence at WAR!

Hope to see you all there!

Mistress Averil du Bois d'Avignon

From the Kingdom Webminister

Webministers, please take a few moments to visit the Kingdom Webminister's site at http://www.outlands.org/webminister.html

You will find the official Webminister's policies and the time frame by which I will be working on applying these new policies. As things fluctuate with the holidays and war approaching, these dates may be moved to allow you more time. Please refer to the site for the most current progress and dates.

Tentatively, I would like all group or officer recognized pages to be compliant with SCA and Kingdom policy by February 1, 2003. This may not seem like a long time but the changes needed to be compliant are very minor. Also, I would like to have all local Webministers warranted by the end of February. If you group does not have an official Webminister (as an officer) then the Seneschal of your group must send me an e-mail stating this. Please see the website for more details.

Also, please keep in mind that your websites are your groups' calling cards to the world. While information like calendars and pictures are great, you also need to keep in mind that a lot of people viewing your site may not even know what the SCA is. Work with your Hospitaller or Seneschal to develop content for newcomers. It will make a big difference in how your group grows!

I am also looking for deputies to assist me with checking all the pages in the Outlands. Mostly this entails looking for broken links and reporting them to the appropriate Webminister. Let me know if you would be interested.

Please feel free to e-mail me with issues regarding your sites or if you need assistance. I'm only a click away!

From the Kingdom Minister of the Lists

As feast season is upon us, we eagerly look into the upcoming year.....AND WAR!!! In the meantime, make sure your membership cards and authorization cards are up to date. You will not be allowed to fight at events without both of these being current AND shown to the Minister of the Lists.

I wish to sing the praises of our local MoLs, and the great job they are doing. They are working hard to make sure your game is safe AND fun; please thank them for their hard work.

Just a reminder, please use the Minister of the Lists web pages to report authorizations, turn in tourney reporting, or print a list of current authorizations. You can find them by entering the officers home page: http://www.outlands.org/officers.html and clicking on the Minister of the Lists link.

Shoot well,

From the War Council:

Greetings from the War Council!

As war draws near we want to let the fine populace of the Outlands know of some of the great projects that we are working on for war. After consulting with members of the Crown, the Baronages and the Populace at large we have organized some projects. We are here to serve the needs and populace of the Outlands in war related activities, please give us your counsel. We could use volunteers in all areas, so please look to our web site at www.outlandswarcouncil.com for information on how to help the Crown and Kingdom's war effort!

First of all look for the Soup Kitchen Thursday through Sunday under the Green and Gold pavilion. Mistress Bahiyya will again be serving up several selections of hot soup including a vegetarian variety every one of these days after the Outlands Prize tourney and the battles. There will be other offerings to be had as well. Please offer your support and contact Mistress Bahiyaa to help with the soup kitchen. Secondly, look for snacks on the field in the form of jerky, fruits, and other treats. Baroness Dovita is the organizer for this, please contact her with your offers of help.

We have Volunteer slots to fill for official Estrella war hours. So, please sign up and volunteer to help with gate, marshaling, water bearing or security at the war. The Water Bearers especially need your help. When volunteering at war remember to sign IN and OUT to log your time, count your hours and get the money sent to your group. Volunteer hours for the war count towards Kingdom total worked hours (we need to log lots!) and will be reimbursed at an hourly rate towards the Kingdom of the Outlands and even your local group. So, get a group together, or go by yourself and meet new people. A few hours from everyone will make a huge difference for the war. When you volunteer for something, make sure you log in your hours!!

Look for War Practices January 5th in Caerthe and Jan. 11th in the Citadel. The last big war practice will be on February 1st to prepare for war. The commanders and General are in place and ready to train the Outlands for war! Look at the War Council web site for more details on commanders in your area that you can contact if you have any questions, have extra loaner armor, want to volunteer to marshal, or have an extra tabard.

Their Majesties are proud to announce their Command staff for the Rapier fighters at war. Please look for these gentlemen's guidance as you prepare for war and come to practice!

General: Don Otteaux the Blackhearted

Regional Commanders: North-Lord Justin the Gentle; Central-Lord Bizmala Delmar; South-Stryder and Peryn Wolf

Now is the time to think of your preparations and to contribute to the war effort for the entire Kingdom. The War Council is ready to work for the populace for the best war experience ever. This includes making all kinds of war related plans like A&S, Archery, Rapier, food, scheduling, volunteering etc. Let us know what you think! As always we are accepting letters of interest from persons who wish to fill one of the positions on the Council. Positions will be coming available in the next year and we keep letters on file, so please contact us if you are interested in becoming more involved with the behind the scenes part of working for a great War experience for the Outlands.

Thanks for your interest and support!

Madigan of Kandahar
secretary for the Outlands War Council

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (1/2) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A March event MUST run in the March OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the two (2) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Generally, event announcements must fit on 1/2 page in months prior to the event, and 1 page the month of the event. Announcements exceeding this size may be trimmed to fit. Optionally, if you wish to exceed this limit, you can purchase space at current advertising rates. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.
